You Became a Doctor to Treat Patients, Not Write Notes

- You see 15–30 patients a day. After each one, you spend 5–10 minutes writing up the notes.
- By the end of your day, you've spent 2+ hours on paperwork — time you could have spent seeing more patients or going home to your family.
- Some days you rush the notes, and you know details get missed. But there's no time.
- You've tried apps before, but none of them understand how Indonesian doctors actually talk.

Just Talk to Your Patient. Larinova Does the Rest.

Press record. Speak normally in Bahasa Indonesia. When you're done, Larinova has already created:

Feature	Manual	With Larinova

ICD-10 Codes	You look them up	Suggested automatically

- Saves you 2+ hours every day — That's 10+ extra patients you could see, or 2 hours back with your family.
- Affordable — After the free month, it costs less than one patient consultation. The ROI is immediate.
